STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. The Institution shall advise each student to give a notice of cancellation in writing. If students cancel their enrollment or give notice of withdrawal to CalCC or CalCC withdraws or terminates the student, the refund must be calculated using the last date of attendance (LDA) and must be paid within forty-five (45) calendar days from the documented date of determination (DOD).

REFUND POLICY

Cancellation Before Start of Class

Rejection of Applicant's international visa: If a prospective student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant, less a maximum of $250 non-refundable charges if such charges are clearly itemized in the enrollment agreement as non-refundable.

Program Cancellation: If CalCC cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, the institution will refund all monies paid, by student.

Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show for International Applicants: If an applicant accepted by CalCC enters the United States with an I-20 obtained through the institution and subsequently cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant, less a maximum of $250 non-refundable charges that the institution collected if such charges are clearly itemized in the enrollment agreement as non-refundable.

Withdrawal or Termination After Start of Class

For students who completed 60 percent or less of a term: CalCC may retain a prorated amount of tuition. Prorated refunds will be calculated daily for the days student attended or was scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal.

For students who completed more than 60 percent of a term: CalCC may retain all of the charges for that term.

Charges Other Than Tuition

CalCC collects the following fees other than tuition:

Application Fee ($200) and airport pick-up fee ($50/$75) are non-refundable charges. SEVIS fee ($350), international express mail fee ($120) and, credit card fee ($25), are also non-refundable but paid directly to other organizations.

Instructional Materials

If the school has given to the student any books or learning materials, this student shall return them to the school within 10 days following the date of his/her notice of cancellation. If the student fails to return the books, or learning materials in good condition within the 10-day period, the school may deduct the documented cost from any refund that may be due to the student.

Once the student pays for the books, or learning materials, they are his/hers to keep without further obligation. If the student cancels this agreement, the school will refund any money that the student paid, less any deduction for books, or learning materials not timely returned in good condition, within 30 days after his/her notice of cancellation is received.

FEDERAL AID AND LOANS:

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and that, if the student has received federal student aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the money not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur: (1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan. (2) The student not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

NOTICE CONCERNING TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS AND CREDENTIALS EARNED AT OUR INSTITUTION:

The transferability of credits you earn at CalCC is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the Certificate of Achievement you earn in Academic ESL Program, or Professional ESL Program or Conversations in Culture Program is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the Certificate of Achievement that you earn at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason, you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending CalCC to determine if your certificate of achievement will transfer.

STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF):

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student international program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition. You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.
